

Melanie Oxley

Trainee Solicitor

Melanie joined the firm as a paralegal in December 2018 having completed her BPTC and starting her LPC.

Following successful completion of her LPC in 2019, Melanie became a trainee solicitor and is hoping to become fully qualified by the end of December 2020.

Melanie has previous experience working in house handling a company's debt collection matters, predominantly through the small claims track.

Melanie works primarily in our Residential Conveyancing department although assists Fee Earners where required in Family, Private Client and Civil departments.
