Notable Cases

H v H - This was a case where the grandmother had applied for a Special Guardianship Order in relation to her grandchild. We represented the Respondent, the father, who was seeking a Child Arrangements Order where his daughter would be returned to his care full time and have contact with the non-resident parent and her family. This matter proceeded to a Final hearing and we successfully obtained a Child Arrangements Order in favour of the father.

P v K -This matter related to the Applicant's son who had contact with his non-resident mother. Over the Easter Holidays, the Respondent refused to return the child back to the Applicant on the basis that he had made an allegation that the Applicant had caused him harm. Following the service of Section 7 reports, it was agreed prior to the Final hearing, that the child should be returned to the Applicant's care and therefore we were successful in our application.

T v T - Representing the Applicant who had issued divorce proceedings and was seeking a Financial Order. We successfully obtained a Financial Relief Order where the matrimonial home was transferred to the Applicant together with securing monthly maintenance payments for her.

H v H – Financial Relief Matter. Successfully made an application to the Court in relation to financial relief. The Court ordered that the Applicant (our client) receives the full equity in the former matrimonial home together with a Pension Sharing Order.
